Pines Village Retirement Communities gives $7,000 in scholarship awards

VALPARAISO | Pines Village Retirement Communities announces the 2009-10 winners of the Margaret M. Rivers scholarship award. The scholarship fund was created in 1993 to foster employee longevity and encourage employees to pursue their higher education goals. The Margaret M. Rivers fund was created in honor of Midge Rivers, founding director of PVRC.

A total of $7,000 was awarded to the following six undergraduate student employees:

Kelsey Angelini, employed in Dining Services for 2 years, will be attending Dominican University majoring in physical therapy. Her parents are Michael and Kim Angelini.

Jennifer Campano, employed in Dining Services for more than five years, attends Indiana University Northwest majoring in diagnostic medical sonography. Her parents are Joseph and Patricia Bottos Campano.

Joel Fabugais, employed in Dining Services for six years, attends Ivy Tech Community College majoring in physical therapy assistant. His parents are Paul and Emelia Fabugais.

Lindsay Gaither, employed in Dining Services for three years, will be attending Glendale Community College in Arizona, majoring in sociology & criminal justice. Her parents are John and Pam Gaither.

Jackie Newmann, employed in Dining Services for one year, attends Ivy Tech Community College majoring in nursing. Her parents are Glen and Jean Newmann.

Jacqueline Sabol, employed in Dining Services for three years, attends Butler University majoring in economics. Her parents are John and Veronica Sabol.

Pines Village Retirement Communities is a nonprofit organization that has been celebrating the lives of older adults since 1983.

The facility celebrate life — past, present and future by providing residential living, advocacy, programs, and services to enhance the quality of life for older adults. It strives to create an enlightened future where older adults enjoy the respect and honor they have earned. Donations are accepted at 3303 Pines Village Circle, Valparaiso, IN 46383.
