

Press Release: 7-9-08

Pines Village Retirement Communities gives $12,000 in scholarship awards

Pines Village Retirement Communities, Inc. (PVRC) announces the 2008-2009 winners of the Margaret Rivers and Anne Lauterbach scholarship awards. The scholarship program was created to foster employee longevity and encourage employees to pursue their higher education goals.

The Margaret M. Rivers fund was created in honor of Midge Rivers, founding director of PVRC. This year, $7,500 was given from this fund.

The Anne Lauterbach fund was created in honor of the late Anne Lauterbach. Lauterbach was an educator and a Pines Village resident. This year, $4,500 was given from this fund.

A total of $12,000 was awarded to the following 11 undergraduate and graduate student employees:

Joshua Appel, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Indiana Purdue Fort Wayne and is majoring in construction engineering. His parents are James and Joyce Appel.

Luis Balcazar, employed in dining services for 3 years, attends Purdue University and is majoring in behavioral neuroscience and Spanish. His parents are Luis and Maria Balcazar.

Ashley Bisping, employed in dining services for 1 year, attends Indiana University Northwest with an undeclared major. Her mother is Sandra Davis.

Jennifer Campano, employed in dining services for 4 years, attends Indiana University Northwest and is majoring in radiography. Her parents are Lou Campano and Patricia Bottos-Campano.

Alexander Donkle, employed in dining services for 5 years, attends Purdue University West Lafayette and is majoring in acoustical engineering. His parents are Lou and Priscilla Donkle.

Joel Fabugais, employed in dining services for 5 years, attends Ivy Tech Community College with a major in physical therapy assistant. His parents are Paul and Emelia Fabugais.

Kirsten Mangel, employed in dining services for 1 year, attends Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis and is majoring in pharmacology. Her parents are Tom and Kathy Mangel.

Janet Peters, employed in accounting for 1 year, attends Purdue University Calumet and is pursuing her masters of accountancy.

Beth Ricks, employed in the home health department for 1 year, attends Purdue University North Central and is majoring in nursing.

Jacqueline Sabol, employed in dining services for 2 years, attends Butler University with an undeclared major. Her parents are John and Veronica Sabol.

Dayna Thompson, employed in dining services for 5 years, attends Purdue University Calumet and is majoring in physics. Her parents are Richard and Debbie Thompson.

Pines Village retirement Communities is a nonprofit organization that has been providing housing and services for older adults since 1983. Our mission is to celebrate life by enriching the lives of older adults. Donations are accepted at 3303 Pines Village Circle, Valparaiso, IN 46383. For more information call 219-465-1591 or visit our website at www.pinesvillage.org.